The draft of the following Bye-laws under the City of Bangalore Improvement (Amendment) Act, 1952, which, it is proposed to make in respect of the City of Bangalore Improvement Trust Board, Bangalore, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 43 of the said Act, is hereby published for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby.

Notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration after a month from the date of its first publication in the Gazette.

Objections or suggestions, if any, to the draft bye-laws may be forwarded to the Chairman, City Improvement Trust Board, Bangalore, on or before the said date for consideration.

910 K. HENJERAPPA, Chairman.

BYE-LAWS IN REGARD TO THE RECEIPT AND DISPOSAL OF APPLICATIONS FOR SITES IN VARIOUS EXTENSIONS FORMED BY THE CITY IMPROVEMENT TRUST BOARD, BANGALORE.

1. Lists of sites available for disposal shall be published on the notice boards of all important offices (including that of the Board) in City and in one or two Kannada Newspapers (Dailies) and in the Deccan Herald (English Daily) on or after the 1st of every month. Dimensions of sites, price fixed by the Board for each site shall also be given. No application other than the one sent in response to the notice issued shall be entertained in the Office of the Trust Board.

2. A copy of the list of sites for any extension together with a copy of the plan of the extension, an application form and a chellan for depositing money can be had from the Office of the Chairman, during office hours on payment of Rs. 2 (Rupees two only) per set.

3. Applications shall be received up to the 15th of every month. If the 15th happens to be a holiday, they may be presented on the next working day. Applications should be for a particular site. If a person desires to apply for more than one site, a separate form has to be presented. Each application should be accompanied with an earnest money deposit of Rs. 50 (rupees fifty only) in case of sites measuring below 300 sq. yds. and Rs. 100 (rupees one hundred only) in the case of sites measuring between 300 and 499 sq. yds. (both inclusive) and Rs. 250 (rupees two hundred and fifty only) in case of 500 sq. yds. and above. Site applied for should be clearly marked on the plan, which should be signed and attached to the application. All the columns of the application form should be correctly entered; otherwise the application is liable to be rejected. The applications should be in sealed covers and addressed to the Chairman. Applications received after the prescribed date will not be considered.

4. Covers containing the applications will be opened by the Chairman on the day next to the day prescribed for receiving the applications at 2 P.M. in the presence of the applicants present. In the case of bungalow sites—sites measuring 500 (five hundred) sq. yds. and above—if there are more than one application for any site a week's notice will be given to all the applicants inviting sealed tenders as to the premium they are prepared to pay over and above the rate fixed by the Board. Minimum premium per site shall be Re. 0-8-0 per sq. yd. and subsequent premia shall be in multiplies of Re. 0-2-0 per sq. yd. The tenders received shall be opened to at a meeting of the Trust Board. The site will be allotted to the highest tenderer, unless the Board considers that the offer made is not satisfactory, in which case the Board may proceed to dispose of the sites by public auction.

5. Allotment of sites shall be made only to persons who satisfy the conditions prescribed by the Board.

6. It shall be within the discretion of the Trust Board to decide which class of sites will be disposed of by drawing lots. Whenever lots have to be drawn, it must be done only at an open meeting of the Trust Board, due intimation thereof, being given to the Trustees before hand.

7. Disposal of all sites except by public auction should be approved by Government.

8. As soon as possible after the confirmation of allotments by the Board, notices shall be issued to the allottees intimating the allotment. Earnest money of the applicants,
